

Patient Name: John Doe Age: 54 Gender: Male

Chief Complaint: The patient complains of persistent chest pain and shortness of breath during mild physical activity.

Medical History: - Hypertension (10 years) - Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus (6 years) - Hyperlipidemia

Examination Findings: - Blood Pressure: 150/95 mmHg - Heart Rate: 92 bpm - Respiratory Rate: 20 bpm - ECG: Shows signs of ST depression suggestive of myocardial ischemia.

Treatment Plan: The patient was started on low-dose aspirin and atorvastatin. A stress test has been scheduled to evaluate cardiac function further.

Follow-up: The patient has been advised to return for a follow-up in 2 weeks or earlier if symptoms worsen.